

Mount Sinai Civic Association Minutes of 6/2/14

Pledge of Allegiance 8:00 pm

Minutes of 5/5/14 presented by Lisa Pfeffer

Board members present – Ann Becker, Brad Arrington, Saranto Calamas, Jennifer Roth, Lisa Pfeffer

Members present - 35

Officer Will Gibaldi from Cope spoke introducing himself, reaching out to the community. He opened the floor to questions. He will try to make next meeting in September.

Treasurer's Report – Saranto Calamas provided:

Savings = $3,197.04

Checking = $1,379.10

Corresponding Secretary's Report – letter

2 emails by Ann

Membership Report – Jennifer Roth – 104 paid members for 2014/15

Finished 2013/14 with 242 members.

Motion to accept minutes and reports made by Walter Becker, and seconded by Deidre Dubato.

Jane Bonner's updates

The Valero Gas Station and desire for a convenience store.

The Amsterdam project becomes the Warburg project.

Permit needed for Oktoberfest. Jane gave it to Lori Baldassare.

Paul Elliot project (by King Kullen) trying to get re-zoned as an A-1 parcel. Has to go back to original zoning. No more extras for civic or the park. Regarding Macchia fund for land preservation, will get Pine barren credits.

Update on the road construction at 112.

No application for Pondview Estates by Plymouth.

Free rabies vaccines, Saturday, June 7th, 10am to 1pm at town hall.

Town recycling program is a success and will be in Newsday.

Guest speaker :

Jim Tsunis- taking over Paul Elliot's project.

Intro to project. More formal presentation after application and they have plans, will come back.

More guest speakers:

Judge Steven L. Ukeiley spoke, campaigning for District Court Judge.

Linda Kevins spoke about running for District Court Judge too.

Voting is in November.

Lori Baldassare – Heritage Park Happenings:

Oktoberfest .

Brad is donating $750 civic association for sign and beautification of park.

Car show July 20th.

Summer camp June 30-Aug.1, $350 and discount for siblings

2 movie nights – Lego Movie and Frozen, because of the generosity of sponsors

Carnival in flower.

Meeting Adjourned by Steve Koepper, 1st and Mike Endelson, 2nd.